

Gerry Gemmill

Deputy Director of Public Works & Utilities

Deputy Director of Public Works and Utilities Gerry Gemmill assists the Division Director oversee nearly 800 people including the departments of Engineering Services, Solid Waste Management, Wastewater Management, Water and Hydroelectric Services, Street Maintenance, Capital Programs, Environmental Programs, Fleet Services, Annexation Programs, Utility Billing, Real Estate Services, and Animal Control Management. Gerry and his team are dedicated to providing the citizens of Spokane a high level of customer service and departments that are efficiently run.

Gerry recently joined Public Works and Utilities, prior to joining the City of Spokane; Gerry served as the operation director for Spokane County. He presently is a member of the American Public Works Association. He holds a bachelor's degree in public policy from Whitworth University and a master's in public administration from Eastern Washington University.